TEACHING TOLERANCE

A PROJECT OF THE SOUTHERN POVERTY LAW CENTER

Teaching Tolerance provides free resources to educators—teachers, administrators, counselors and other practitioners—who work with children from kindergarten through high school. Educators use materials to supplement the curriculum, to inform their practices, and to create civil and inclusive school communities where children are respected, valued and welcome participants.

Digital Media Resource

SOS SPOTLIGHT ON STRATEGIES

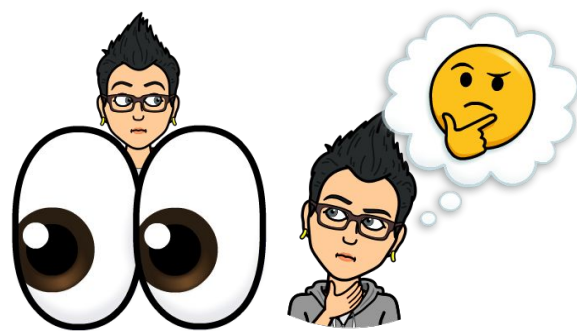

Creative, research-based instructional strategies for integrating digital media in meaningful, effective, and practical ways.

Multiple Perspectives*

Multiple Perspectives is a teaching strategy that requires students to engage deeply with an image or video as they assume a perspective other than their own. Students create a narrative from inside a piece of media, from the perspective of an object or person within.

Skills:

- Cites Evidence
- Inference and Prediction
- Instructional Hook
- Key Ideas and Details
- Point of View and Purpose
- Summarizing
